

Seeking Public Representatives with Lived Experience

The Regulatory College of Audiologists and Speech-Language Pathologists of New Brunswick (RCASLPNB) is seeking public representatives to join our Council.

We're looking for individuals who can bring:

- The public voice
- Insight shaped by real-world experience
- A commitment to public protection
- A positive attitude, inspiration, and discretion

About the Role

As a Public Representative on Council, you will:

- Bring the public perspective to discussions and decisions
- Support regulatory oversight that protects New Brunswickers
- Support Council's strategic planning by providing the public perspective focused on ensuring safe, ethical, and competent practice
- Help ensure transparency, fairness, and accountability in how audiology and speech-language pathology are regulated

Commitment & Support

- Annual Honorarium
- 4–5 virtual meetings/year (~2 hrs each)
- 1 full-day in-person meeting/year with travel support
- Participation in English or French with live translation
